“Out of those Japanese restaurants all over the world I visited,
SHOYA is amazingly authentic and makes me feel like being at home in Japan.

It’s no inferior to any of those competitive restaurants, even if SHOYA stands among the quality restaurants in central Tokyo...”

These are some of the compliments the Grandmaster Chef Kandagawa told us during his short visit to Melbourne for a TV shoot.
He left us with a happy smile saying “See you soon...”

Then, we saw him 4 nights in a row dining at various sections of our restaurant:
BBQ, Horigotatsu traditional seating and twice on the sushi counter.

Shortly after his return to Japan, we received a very beautiful painting with nice wording:

“Warm hearted person gathers warm hearted people.”

WELCOME TO SHOYA

Enjoy the dining experience...

Hope this warm hearted person enjoy every dish created by another warm hearted master-owner-chef Shigeo Nonaka, who carefully selects all the ingredients including 500 days grain fed Wagyu beef, Berkshire black hair pork, free range chicken, live seafood, and also exclusive rice wine from all over Japan,

We choose to use fast growing environmentally friendly bamboo chopsticks in place of unhygienic re-usable or un-environmentally friendly bleached wooden ones.

All the stocks used here are made from scratch using bonito flakes, kelp, mushrooms, etc... without any conventional seasonings nor MSG.

Should you have any allergic reactions or requests to any of the ingredients we use, please notify our staff prior to ordering.
We shall do our best to cater to your needs.

Make yourself at home in SHOYA...
